

Please reject the NAB's petition 04-160.
XM radio provides me with a valuable service by providing current traffic and weather information not available "on demand" by any other vehicle friendly communication source available in my area.

As a medical professional, I use this valuable service frequently to insure I take the best route based on current traffic conditions.